DEFENCE DEPARTMENT.

Simla, the 13th May 1939.

NOTICE.

No. 617.—A competitive examination for entry to (1) the Indian Military Academy, Dehra Dun, in the term beginning on or about 26th January 1940; and (2) the Royal Indian Navy, will be held in Delhi on Monday the 23rd October 1939, and subsequent days. The examination will be conducted by the Federal Public Service Commission.

2. The examination will be a combined one for the purpose of filling vacancies in the Indian Military Academy, and the Royal Indian Navy. A candidate may apply to be admitted to the examination for either or both of the above. If he wishes to be admitted as a candidate for more than one, he should state this on his application form. Separate applications are not required. He will be required to pay the application and examination fees once only. If he proves successful as a candidate for both, he will ordinarily be assigned to the one for which he expressed a preference in his application; but the Government of India reserve power to assign him to any one.

3. At this examination 15 vacancies will be offered for entry to the Indian Military Academy. The Governor-General in Council, however, reserves to himself the right to fill the last three vacancies by nomination from among those who have qualified but failed to obtain sufficient marks to secure one of the first twelve vacancies. Two vacancies will be offered for admission to the Executive Branch of the Royal Indian Navy.

4. The examination will be the same for all arms of the Indian Army, i.e., Cavalry, Artillery, Signals, Engineers and Infantry. All candidates on joining the Indian Military Academy may volunteer to be considered for the technical arms, and will be given a test examination in Mathematics. Those who show a satisfactory standard of knowledge will be formed into a Preparatory Woolwich Wing during the first and second terms.

At the end of the second term the Commandant will select the cadets to form a Woolwich Wing.

5. Candidates for admission to the Indian Military Academy must have been born not earlier than the 2nd November 1919 and not later than the 1st November 1921. Candidates for the Royal Indian Navy examination must have been born not earlier than the 2nd May 1920 and not later than the 1st May 1922. These age limits can in no case be relaxed.
